

POPULAR MOBILIZATION AND STATE RESPONSIVENESS: THE CASE OF EDUCATION IN INDIA

Dr. Pushkar

DATE: 19th Aug 2024 (Mon).

TIME: 11.30 A.M. - 1 P.M.

VENUE: VDC (Theatre Hall Room 2), GITAM, Vizag.

Dr Pushkar is the Director & Chief Executive at International Centre Goa (ICG). A PhD in Political Science (McGill University, Canada), he studied history at St Stephen's College (Delhi University) and politics and international relations at the Jawaharlal Nehru University (New Delhi). Dr Pushkar has taught at both universities in India and Canada, including BITS Pilani-Goa; McGill University; Concordia University; and Goa University etc. Dr Pushkar has published journal articles and book chapters on Chilean politics and health sector reforms; democracy, public goods provision, health and higher education in India. He co-authors Democracy, Civil Society, and Health in India (Palgrave Macmillan, 2015). Since 2012, he has written nearly 200 op-eds and essays on India's higher education in various reputed print and online newspapers.